

Canal in Two Years President Predicts Early Opening.

Pictures Shipping from the Atlantic to Pacific in the Near Future.

Admits Accidents May Delay Work, but Hopes for Promised Speed.

Tolls Undecided, but Shippers Will Profit, Declares Mr. Taft.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SEATTLE (Wash.) Oct. 9.—This was President Taft's fourth night "aboard" since he left Beverly September 15, to begin his voyage around the world.

In the twenty-four days he has been out the President has granted his private "shore leave" only at Erie, Pa., Marquette, Mich., Omaha and Seattle. In spite of the hardships of constant travel he has stood his trip well and is looking fit and trim.

Mr. Taft spent the day traveling south from Bellingham, Wash., a little more than twenty miles from the Canadian line, to Seattle. He stopped at Bellingham, Mr. Vernon and Everett, making brief speeches in each place. Tonight he stands in the armory here. As in the eastern part of the State last week, large crowds turned out to hear the President.

At Bellingham, "Taft day" had been well advertised, and the folks for miles around had driven in to see the President.

Mr. Taft's first speech of the day was delivered at Bellingham. He predicted opening for traffic of the Panama Canal by July 1, 1912; said that Canada was going to be sorry she had not adopted the reciprocity treaty, and talked for a few minutes about conservation.

"OFFICIAL CONFIDENCE."
In speaking of the opening of the Panama Canal, the President said he would let the people of Bellingham "have a little official confidence."

"If nothing untoward happens," he said, "you can count on the completion of the canal not later than the first of July, 1912. It has only been promised on the first of January, 1912, and therefore, if it is not ready until then, you must not say that anybody made a promise that it would be completed before."

"I am expressing a hope based upon calculation, but of course, man, process, and God disposes, and it is possible that something will happen down there in the way of slides or delay to work that may continue here until the first of January, 1912. But I don't want you to have any unpleasant surprise. I don't want you to have heart disease if you learn that the new channel goes through there on the first of July, 1912."

Mr. Taft said that it made no difference what policy was adopted in regard to tolls or management of the canal, for the people were certain to see that arrangements were made so as to make it profitable to ship goods through the waterway.

The President's reference to reciprocity, called out by his proximity to the Canadian line, was short, but it brought forth some applause.

ON RECIPROCITY.
"There is one topic," he said, "that I had intended to discuss with you, but our near neighbors across the border settled that a week or more ago, and seemed to make it past history. But I think you will agree with me that it is better to make a mistake and add that that treaty goes through, it would have been greatly beneficial to both countries. Now I think we know a little more on this side than they do on theirs, because we are an older country, and after some years of experience it is possible that they will come to take the right view. But whether they be or not, they don't grow as rapidly as we do, and as rapidly as they might have grown, they cannot say it is our fault."

Before leaving the speaker's platform at Bellingham, Sen. Takigawa, a pretty little Japanese woman, representing the Japanese Society of the city, presented to the President a bouquet of flowers. With Mrs. Takigawa were her two little daughters, both clad in shining silver garments and both unadorned at their proximity to greatness.

One little girl showed an early fondness for her mother, climbing over the knee of Mr. Taft, the President's aide, and remaining there blissfully inattentive to the ecstasy of Mr. Taft, while the party stayed on the platform. The major smiled, but said the temporary godfather as if he liked it.

PRESIDENT OFFERS CHANCE TO ALASKA.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SEATTLE, Oct. 9.—President Taft faced tonight one of the largest and by far the most enthusiastic

VOTE YOUR CONVICTIONS

Only a majority of the ELECTIONS VOTING THEREON is required for the adoption of a constitutional amendment in California; therefore, if the citizen is doubtful of the wisdom of any of the proposed changes in the fundamental law it is necessary that he go to the polls in order to make his opposition effective. To withhold his approval is not enough. He must cast a negative vote.

The experience has been that when constitutional amendments or charter amendments are submitted to the people at special elections, only a fraction of the voters express themselves, and that made up chiefly of the active and interested advocates of the proposed changes.

If you have convictions you should vote today.

Meet in Conference With Strike Leaders.

State and Railroad Chiefs Who met in Mississippi yesterday in effort to end big railroad strike.

and responsive audience he has met on any of his recent travels. He was greeted with prolonged cheers, and constantly was interrupted with applause.

The President discussed a variety of subjects, including the relation of government to business, the tariff, and Alaska, the last subject of vital interest here. He declared that Alaska should at least have a semi-autonomous body. Two years ago Mr. Taft advocated here a straight commission form of government for the traveling population not able enough for a full measure of self-control.

"That proposition has not met approval," said Mr. Taft tonight, "but I think it the better way, but the man who stands on a dogmatic statement and says 'No' and never consents to a violation of that principle, makes no progress. I am willing to make a concession for a partly elective and partly appointive form of government in Alaska."

"Congress cannot make the necessary laws for Alaska. Alaska must have a local body. In bringing this about I hope there will be no political players. I hope the two houses of Congress will unite in bringing about a change that will result in the development of Alaska, and making it a territory valuable to itself and valuable to all mankind."

"I see no more reason for government ownership in Alaska, however, than elsewhere. We should introduce there the same limitations as to the disposition of the public domain as apply to the disposition of the public domain elsewhere in this country."

FAVORS LEASING.
"As for myself, I favor the leasing system. It has proved a success in Australia, New Zealand and in Canada. What you want in a condition of ownership that will attract capital. Some people have an idea that you can drive capital where it does not want to go. But if there is anything that has wings, anything that is sensitive, anything that won't go where you want it to go, it is capital. Under a leasing system you would offer an inducement to capital to go in. Let's try it. I am not insistent, but I don't want to see the best way. The profits to the government from the leasing system could be turned back into the territory for its further development."

Congressman Humphrey, who introduced the President, declared that the people of the Pacific Coast, from British Columbia to Southern California, were waiting for a chance in the convention, and at the polls to say, "Well, don't trust an old-fashioned servant, enter for four years more."

There was a great outburst of cheering at this.

The President, the Sherman anti-trust law Mr. Taft said he was just as much bound by his oath to enforce that statute as he was the law against counterfeiting.

MUST ENFORCE LAW.
"There is no difference, no discretion, between the two, and I purpose to enforce the one the same as I do the other," he exclaimed.

The President has got to go right on enforcing the law, and is not to be frightened by suggestions of disaster to business carried on against the law.

The Supreme Court, the President declared, had decreed that business must go on under the old doctrine of competition or not at all. He spoke against depriving business simply because it was prosperous, declaring that there should be every encouragement to thrift and industry so long as it was conducted along legitimate lines.

Following his address at the armory, the President was escorted to the rooms of the Seattle Press Club, where a lively program of songs and speeches, mostly in the Chinese jargon, was presented, to the great delight of the President, who did not understand a word of the Indian language, except the frequent use of the words "Yee Taft," "Yee Taft" meaning chief. The President, as a former member of the club, was elected a member of the club and made a speech to "his brethren of the craft."

BY STRETCHING A CABLE SAVES MANY FROM FLOOD.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NOGALES (Ariz.) Oct. 9.—Officials of the Sonora Railway stretching a cable, all the inhabitants were saved with the exception of several women and children who lost their holds while being transferred and were carried away by the waters and lost.

Ten persons are known to have perished in the flood, and several others are believed to have died in that vicinity. Details are unavailable because the waters are still raging, but it is said not a house is left standing except the depot and a pump-house.

The inhabitants passed the night of October 4 in the depot which was partly flooded. The track was washed off the right of way and the rails broken by the water when the debris solidified with the bridges. The rescued persons lived on roofs, hope and courage pulled out of the water as they drifted past the depot.

The property lost at Ortiz was estimated at $10,000.

STOR WRITES A TART FAREWELL TO HIS FLOCK.

He is a person who has full duty he will have them, and that is why I am proud of them. I have them as a few church boys that have more energy than religion. They have opposed everything that has stood for progress in the years that have gone, and who still stay with the flock.

There have been every agency possible against the man who has been a part of the church. They have talked to every one they could reach, both inside and outside of the town, except the pastor. They seem to have been afraid to talk to him. One wrote an anonymous communication to the pastor with the purpose of humiliating him. He confessed his sneaking meanness only when he was charged with it. A few others found that the pastor differed with them on a political question, and it is unorthodox for a pastor to have a mind of his own, so these could not do the much against him. These all form 10 per cent, or less, of the church, the very narrow class that are always in the front in communion. This 10 per cent, or less are the enemies of whom I am proud. I am glad that it is not the other way round. Because it is in this way I have faith in humanity and in the ultimate triumph of the church.

THE LEON ARREST.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] When Albert Leon was arrested last night the Secret Service found on him $200 in real money and an express money order for $600. No spurious currency was found, and a search of his room revealed nothing to connect him with counterfeiting operations. Although he admitted that he knew the men arrested in Chicago, he denied having anything to do with making the notes they are alleged to have passed. To Chief Flynn he said he was engaged as a farmer at Nook Island, B. C. At the time of his arrest he was about to purchase a ticket to Demerara, Dutch Guiana.

DENVER (Col.) Oct. 10.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Albert Leon, arrested in New York on a charge of passing counterfeit $10 bills, according to local Secret Service officers, not only been operating in Denver within the last thirty days, but had succeeded in victimizing forty Denver merchants. Leon is accused of having passed several thousand dollars' worth of counterfeit notes drawn against San Francisco banks.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 10.—[By A. P. ELECTRIC TALKS No. 3

Millions of Capital Invested in Plants

In a little steam plant operated by two 50-horse-power engines was generated all the electricity used in Los Angeles thirty years ago. Now it requires not only several immense steam plants in the city, but, to meet the demand for current, the electric companies have gone hundreds of miles into the mountains, there developing power from the streams and bringing it hither by long and costly transmission lines.

Millions of dollars have been expended in the building of hydro-electric plants, while the cost of lines and distributing stations has been enormous. Other millions are invested in local steam plants, and in many miles of overhead and underground lines through which electricity is conveyed to consumers.

These millions were provided by investors whose only security from loss rests in remunerative operation of the light and power system.

Would it not be wiser and fairer, instead of lessening the bonding power of the city which is needed for other and more immediate public uses like the Harbor & City R.R., by duplicating these systems and for a long period tearing up all the streets and then waiting for profits, for the city of Los Angeles to in some manner use these systems for distribution under the direct control of the city, paying the companies a fair rate for their use and leaving the large profit to the city; or for the people to consent to the sale of current to them under rigid regulations as to price and for limited periods of time. Such arrangements are possible to be made and may be made subject to recall at definite periods at the will of the people.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 10, 1911.—10 PAGES.

The Public Service: City Hall and Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Finance Committee of the Council will report favorably on the harbor railway project, but will recommend that before steps are taken the City Engineer present estimates of cost.

The jury who are to try a man and a woman on charges of murder have been selected and everything is in readiness for the trials to proceed in the Superior Court.

At the City Hall.

RAILWAY BONDS SEEM ASSURED.

FINANCE COMMITTEE PREPARES FAVORABLE REPORT.

Before the Proposition is submitted to the People the City Engineer will be asked to prepare Plans and Estimates of the Cost. Will Take Time.

That bonds should be issued for the municipal harbor railway as recommended by Mayor Alexander, the Finance Committee of the City Council will agree in a report to be submitted to the Council perhaps tomorrow, but probably not until next week.

The committee will ask the City Engineer to prepare plans and estimates of the cost before going any further.

"To call for bonds," one of the members said after the committee adjourned yesterday evening, "we should know how much is wanted."

The undertaking has been quietly discussed by the members of the committee ever since the Mayor's message referred to it some weeks ago, but there has been no public discussion. The committee has been waiting for the City Engineer to make a report on the subject.

The report to the Council was signed by Commissioner Washburn, Secretary and Auditor of the City.

The City Engineer is requested to meet with the Board of Public Utilities and the Harbor Commission, to go over the plans and estimates in detail to the Council the cost of construction, right of way and equipment.

Some of the way for the road have been for the most part signed up, although the location of the line is being kept a secret, owing to the possibility of having competitors along the route who it is feared it is generally believed that for the greater part of the way the line will follow San Pedro street.

It is decided by the Council that the committee's view should be followed. It will be several months before a report can be completed, and the subject will not come up again for some time.

SHING, GOING-GONE.

NEW RULE FOR FIREMEN.

Members of the fire department may not touch, or carry for weeks, the tools which they use in their work, to be returned to their former place. That was announced at the meeting of the Fire Commission yesterday.

The claim of the Black Canyon Coal Company for $254, alleged to be the amount of damage on January 5, 1901, caused by the fire department leaving the doors of the coal yard open, was referred by the Fire Commission again yesterday to the City Attorney.

It was first presented. Manager Murray of the company asserts that the facts have been correctly stated to the commission.

The fireman's pension fund ordinance was not considered by the Finance Committee, owing to the fact that the actuary has not yet prepared his report on the expenditure of life in the department.

At the Courtroom.

THEY ARE READY FOR GRIM DUTY.

FATE OF MAN AND WOMAN WILL BE WITH JURY.

Twenty-four men selected to hear the evidence in the murder trial of a woman and a man who were charged with the murder of a man who was employed by the City.

The jury was selected from the list of names which was submitted to the City Attorney by the City Engineer.

TRACKS FOR ALL.

REED'S NEW PLAN.

A redraft of section 13 of the general ordinance in regard to franchises was presented yesterday morning to the conference of railway officials, representatives of civic associations and city officials by its author, Haines W. Reed, although, owing to the absence of the president of the Board of Public Utilities, there was no regular session of the conference.

Reed's scheme, which was opposed by Vice-President Shoup of the Pacific Electric Company, who pointed out that it conflicts with the State law, would permit existing tracks to be laid on the existing road and must arrange time schedules to suit that road's schedule.

This plan will be taken up again tomorrow morning in the absence of the president of the Board of Public Utilities, where the conference will meet, owing to the fact that the Council will use the Council Chamber on that day.

Simons Gets No Pay.

"Who shall decide when doctors disagree?" was answered by the Fire Commission yesterday morning. Dr. W. H. Simons, who was paid $100 a month, was not paid for his services.

AGENCY DIVORCES.

COURT CHANGES ATTITUDE.

Following the issuance of a writ of mandamus obtained by Attorney Minor P. Goodrich, which is returnable on the 19th inst., Judge Monroe yesterday agreed to give two so-called divorce agency cases a place on the Superior Court calendar.

When Goodrich appeared in department six for the afternoon session, Judge Monroe said, "Mr. Goodrich, I have made a mistake. Your two cases have been placed on the calendar to come up at the earliest possible moment—October 31."

The cases referred to are the Talmadge and Lambert actions for divorce. The Talmadge case is for divorce from the plaintiff, who is a resident of the city, and the Lambert case is for divorce from the plaintiff, who is a resident of the city.

two blocks of road, the city could remove the main street congestion in ninety days.

The committee took no action, but later on Chairman Washburn in conversation with Andrews, said the committee would certainly see that the city is protected.

THEY ARE MEMBERS.

FIRE ALARM PENSIONS.

Employees of the fire alarm and police telegraph are members of the Fire Department, the City Attorney has decided in an opinion presented to the City Council yesterday afternoon for consideration at the meeting of the Council tomorrow.

The opinion was rendered in reply to a request from the Finance Committee, as members of the telegraph department wanted to know what their rights were under the pension fund ordinance, and whether 3 percent was to be deducted from their pay by the city for the purpose of the fund.

In his opinion, Sherk draws attention to the four classes of pensions provided for under the State law, showing that one is for injured while serving as a fireman, while the three others may be granted to any member of the department. The ordinance of the city creating the Bureau of Fire Alarm and Police Telegraph provides for the appointment of employees by the Fire Commission.

Hence, Sherk says, this ordinance makes the employees members of the department.

In the case of J. E. Walker, a line-man whose application for a pension had been denied by the Fire Commission, when he alleged injuries received in the performance of his duties, the City Attorney says he would not be entitled to a pension for bodily injury but he would be for physical disability brought about in doing his duty.

CIVIL SUIT NECESSARY.

TO UNDO WIFE'S DIVORCE.

An attempt by Albert Lewis to have set aside the divorce decree granted Gertrude Lewis last February on the charge that the principal ground was unfounded, resulted in Judge Monroe telling him yesterday he must go into a court of equity for relief.

The former Mrs. Lewis informed the court at the time she made her application that her husband had been found guilty with a companion of having scuttled a ship. The proceedings against him were in Japan.

It was explained yesterday that when Lewis appealed to a higher court in the Oriental country he was acquitted.

DAVIS CASE SET.

WIFE SUE MILLIONAIRE.

Another chapter to the sensational and fruitless divorce proceedings of Robert Davis, baking powder millionaire, was added yesterday when Judge Monroe set for trial the separate maintenance suit of Mrs. Jennie B. Davis on December 12.

Judge Monroe heard the action of Mrs. Davis, who charged that her husband had been found guilty with a companion of having scuttled a ship. The proceedings against him were in Japan.

It was explained yesterday that when Lewis appealed to a higher court in the Oriental country he was acquitted.

Never Can Tell.

ANGELS MAY BE WHITE HOPE FOR VERNONITES.

Dillonites Got Five Out of Seven Games Against the Beavers' Best Heavers, Which Goes to Show Cellarites May Not Be as Easy as the Followers of McCredie Believe.

Beginning this afternoon at Washington Park the Portland and Los Angeles teams will begin an eight-game series that promises to have a great deal to do with the question of whether or not Vernon or Portland will win the Coast League pennant.

Thousands of baseball fans in this end of the State and in fact throughout the league have the idea that because the Angels are at the bottom of the percentage column and the Beavers at the top that the locals have not a chance to make a showing against the leaders.

It is useless to make prophecy as to what any one ball team will do against another team, for bitter experience has shown that it is all a matter of guessing. As an illustration it might be stated that McCredie's team, which has just finished beating the Vernon Tigers five out of seven scheduled games, have been beaten decisively by the Angels every time the two latter teams met on the local grounds.

In the first series at the opening of the season in this city the Angels beat the Beavers four games of the seven played, although out-hit. In the second series played in the latter part of July the Angels beat the Beavers five out of seven games, not only out-hitting them, but making more runs.

The peculiar thing about the two series is that in the first one the Angels apparently had a hard time beating the Beavers four games in seven against untired or bush pitchers, while in the second series the locals walloped the Beavers five of

BENZ WINS AT FAIRMOUNT PARK; MERCEDES SECOND.

Foreign Cars Take First Two Places, With Loxier in Third—Record Is Smashed in Great Road Race and Crowd Sees Ervin Bergdoll, an Amateur, Win Against the World's Best Motor Drivers.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—In one of the greatest road races ever seen in this city, Ervin Bergdoll, a Philadelphia amateur driver, won the Quaker City Motor Club's 201 1/2-mile automobile race with a 50-horsepower Benz car in Fairmount Park this afternoon. His time was 3h. 18m. 41.25-100s. Wishart in a Mercedes was second, time 3h. 30m. 11.4-100s. Ralph Mulford, in a Loxier, was third, in 3h. 31m. 52.75-100s.

Bergdoll not only lowered the record for the course, which was 3h. 29m. 7.50-100s., made last year, but he twice lowered today the record for the 11-10 miles. The best previous time was made by Ray Harroun last year in a Marmon, when he covered the distance in 3h. 32s.

There were no accidents, and a great crowd of people saw the race. The first car sent off was a National, driven by Len Zengle, who won the race last year in a Chadwick machine in 3h. 39m. 7.50-100s.

The weather was perfect and the police estimated that half a million persons were gathered around the course.

Twenty seconds after Zengle started Ralph Mulford in a Loxier was given the word, and he was followed in another twenty seconds by Charles Baise in a Cole. Then the other cars followed at twenty-second intervals.

Zengle was the first around the course in 7m. 21s. He was closely followed by Mulford. The record for the 11-10 miles is 7m. 32s. Ervin Bergdoll came around in 7m. 41s., a new record. Not content with breaking the AMATEURS TRAIN FOR CHAMPIONSHIP BOUTS.

THE amateur boxers are making things hum around the Los Angeles Athletic Club every afternoon and evening. An amateur championship means as much to an amateur as a championship means to a professional. Each boxer has a trainer and the interest and care taken of the boys by them promises to make the coming tournament the best ever pulled off in Los Angeles.

The weight fever is as contagious with amateurs as with the professionals. Nearly every entry enters with the idea that he must make a lighter weight than he is able to do, but this only adds an earnestness to their work that insures the boys being in perfect condition.

The Columbia Athletic Club, an organization recently started, has sent in six men in different weights. The members of the C.A.C. are composed mostly of young fellows from the Italian colony, and as the Italian boys

Vernon, 4; Portland, 2. Extra morning game.

Portland, 3; Vernon, 5. Regular game.

Map Hogan wrestled long and hard with the postiferous Beavers yesterday in two games, but the best that his Tigers could do was to win one. This was the one played in the morning at the Vernon grounds and was known as the game postponed from a previous series in which the score was a tie at 6 to 6 and called on account of the time limit.

The Tigers didn't do much, or in fact, anything, during the afternoon, for they had the misfortune to run against Harkness, who was at his best. This Harkness bird gave two bases on balls and while some of the fans may consider this a weakness he did not give any of the Tigers a chance to get to third base. Naturally, none of them scored.

The performances yesterday were in sharp contrast to the struggles of Sunday when almost 25,000 fans saw the teams fighting for first place. Each team won a game that day and each won one yesterday, but the terrific contests of Sunday took the edge off the play yesterday. The win seemed to be gone. There was just as much effort made by the players to win, but they could not help but show that they had been through a terrific series.

The game yesterday morning was to decide the tie game of April 6, played at the Vernon grounds, when the score was 9 to 9, and was an extra contest not in the regular schedule.

The Tigers won this easily because Hitt was feeling good and the only time they hit him was in the fifth inning, when they touched him for four swats. The first one they got was in the fourth, when Sheehan drove to center with two out.

Kruger started the fifth with a double to left center, advanced to third on Kruger's sacrifice and scored on Peckinpaugh's swipe to left center. LaLonde hit to right which sent Peckinpaugh to the outfield. He died there for he was forced at third by Seaton's drive to left. LaLonde got to second on this and scored on Chadbourne's slam to left. These two were the only runs that the Beavers scored, for after that inning Hitt allowed them but two hits.

SEATON IN WRONG.

The Tigers found Seaton a little easier for they got their first run in the second inning on Bradshaw's pass, Stinson's cut at first and McDonnell's hit. Nothing more resulted until after two were out in the sixth inning.

Then Patterson drove to right for a single and went to second when Kruger allowed the ball to get away from him. Stinson's hit to right scored Patterson and McDonnell's Texas leaguer to left sent in both Bradshaw and Stinson.

Then Burrell cracked a hit over third base that went to the extreme corner of the fence and rolled under the gate for what has heretofore been a home run. McDonnell's score and Burrell got to third before the ball could be returned, but to the surprise of the players and the fans Umpire Hildebrand sent McDonnell back to third and Burrell to second, holding that the ground rules prevented anything more than a two-bagger for a home run.

This was all for Vernon, for Seaton tightened up after that and there was nothing more doing in the run line.

The only feature of the morning game was the fine work of Burrell, who grabbed everything in sight and made some wonderful stops and assists to first base.

PATTERSON BUSY.

The afternoon game was a pipper for the fans and aside from the fine pitching of Harkness, who allowed but four scattered swats, the feature of the contest was the almost riot that Patterson had with Umpire Van Halten in the sixth inning.

Patterson was beside himself with rage over a ruling of Old Van and the big crowd of fans expected him to slug the ump at any time. He called him all sorts of names and might have used his fists on him had not some of the Vernon players formed themselves into a sort of a buffer committee.

The trouble all happened in the sixth inning. Carlin fouled to the catcher and then Ross beat out an infield single. When he went to steal second Patterson, who was at bat swung at the ball and very naturally interfered with Catcher LaLonde and for this alleged interference Van Halten called him out.

Patterson was half crazy over the decision and Hitt ran to the plate and wanted to buy into the trouble. Both followed Van around for several minutes, making their fists and slapping their hands and calling the ump all kinds of names.

The game was delayed several minutes while the men wrangled but the ump stuck to his decision and Patterson had to go away back and sit down.

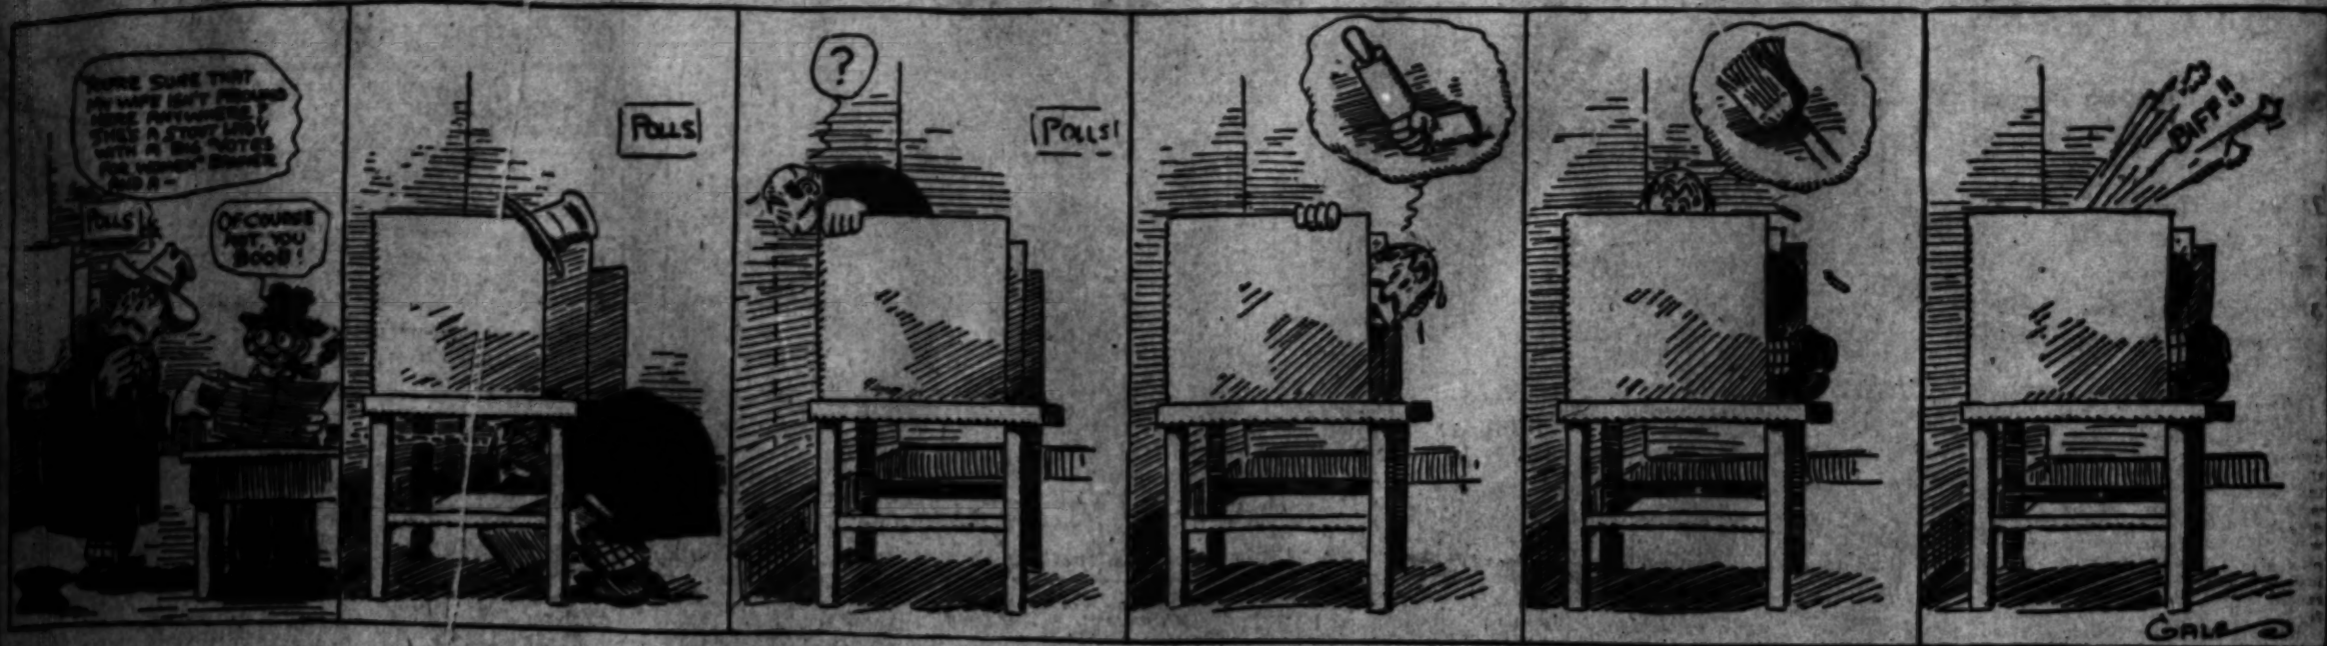

HARKNESS TOO STRONG.

Harkness was invincible and while he was hit for four singles he kept out of the Tigers from getting on far as third base. This was an awful disappointment to Map Hogan, for it kept him from scoring, but none of them could help themselves. None by the fact that the locals have Toner and Halla available, which they did not have in the early part of the season. However, to offset these two, Delhi, who was strong in the early part of the year, is considered rather poor now and some of the fans are rather doubtful of his ability. Judging from the recent past Henderson and Koester are not to be banked upon very strongly by Fordland and the mainlanders. Los Angeles has Leverenz, Delhi, Halla and Nigra to win for them, not counting Criger, if he is well enough, and yet it is only a guess as to which one of these can win against the Beavers.

BEST COAST PLAYERS PARADISE TOURNEY.

Considerable interest among the tennis folk of Southern California center in the two post season tournaments which are to be held this and next month. The first is to be held in Pasadena under the auspices of the Pasadena Tennis Club. The dates for this tournament are October 15, 16, 17 and 18. The other tournament is to be held at Hollywood on the courts of the Hollywood Hotel. This tournament will be held Thanksgiving Day.

QUEENSBERRY DEFENDS THE ABUSED FIGHT PROMOTERS.

BY THE MARQUESS OF QUEENSBERRY.

(Copyright, 1911, by the Marquis of Queensberry.)

IT THINKS it is time some one took up the gloves for the much-abused and wronged promoters. Everybody seems to abuse them and yet every one clamors to see their shows. But whether the shows are good or bad, and in the latter case more often than not it is the fault of the promoters, the promoter gets the blame just the same. Sporting promoters are no different from any other business men. They are not philanthropists, but take up the staging of good fights and bouts as a business, and expect to make good money at it. And quite right. Why shouldn't they?

GOOD "BACKERS" IN ENGLAND.

In England we have no prominent promoter but there are many good ones. Dick Burge, whose life is an example of how a good man at heart can live down a bad fame story in his sport (for he got into serious trouble and for eight years we never saw him) is one of our cleanest, and he runs a fine, clean show at the Ring, Black Friars. If Americans want to see a good show when in London let them go there, and never mind Dick Burge's past. He is a good man and we all respect him.
